Center for Spiritual Growth

The Center for Spiritual Growth offers classes that are intended to provide a foundation of spiritual knowledge. This foundation is important for a deepening relationship with God and with one another. This year's classes will focus on some of the important "Questions of Faith," as well as a three-part segment in creative writing on "Developing My Own Credo or What I Believe."

"Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves like locked rooms and like books that are written in a foreign tongue. Do not see the answers, which cannot be given you because you would not be able to find them. And the point is, to find everything. Live the questions now. Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answer." - Ranier Maria Rilke

Each class will consist of a lecture by Jim Newby. Participants should bring their bibles, notebooks and pens. In addition, please feel free to bring a snack and beverage.

Reservations are not required and the classes are free of charge. Please call or email should you have any questions or need further information.

Childcare available upon request.

James R. (Jim) Newby is the Senior Minister of Church of the Savior, a United Church of Christ and Presbyterian union congregation in Oklahoma City. He is also the Director of the Trueblood Yokefellow Academy for Applied Christianity (an interdenominational organization committed to individual and church renewal). Jim was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and grew up in Muncie, Indiana. He is the son of a Quaker minister. Prior to coming to Oklahoma in 2008, Jim served as the Minister for Faith

The Church of the Savior is a community of faith where sorrows are divided and joys are multiplied and shared. All are welcome to join us on the journey of faith.
